2. INTRODUCTION

- 2.1. For the purpose of POPI and PAIA, Modern Magnets (Pty) Ltd (“Modern Magnets”) is defined as a private body. In accordance with the organisation’s obligations in terms of POPI and PAIA, Modern Magnets has produced this manual.
- 2.2. The Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 was implemented on 9 March 2001. PAIA aims to uphold the Constitutional right to access information held by the State or any other entity when such information is necessary for exercising or safeguarding any rights. It grants individuals and legal entities the right to access records held by public or private bodies, with certain limitations, to facilitate the exercise or protection of their rights.
- 2.3. PAIA establishes the procedural aspects related to information requests, which include the requirement to create a PAIA Manual. Private bodies are mandated by Section 51 of PAIA to compile a manual that allows individuals to access information held. The manual specifies the minimum criteria that must be met.

- 2.4. If a person wishes to obtain information from a private body under PAIA, the request must be made in the prescribed format outlined in the private body's PAIA Manual. Once the request is received, the private body must disclose the information if the requester can demonstrate that the record is necessary for exercising or protecting their rights, provided that no grounds for refusal stated in PAIA are applicable.

3. PAIA MANUAL

- 3.1. This Manual serves as Modern Magnets 's PAIA manual, complying with section 51 of PAIA as amended by the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 (POPIA). POPIA, which primarily came into effect on 1 July 2020, upholds individuals' Constitutional right to privacy and emphasizes the protection of personal information handled by public and private entities. It establishes specific conditions to establish minimum requirements for the handling of personal information.
- 3.2. POPIA amends certain provisions of PAIA, striking a balance between the need for information access and the necessity to safeguard personal information. It establishes an Information Regulator with certain powers, duties, and functions under both POPIA and PAIA. Additionally, it introduces codes of conduct and safeguards individuals' rights concerning unsolicited electronic communications and automated decision-making processes. The aim is to regulate the flow of personal information and address related matters.
- 3.3. We have compiled this Manual to provide you with guidance and ensure that you understand the procedural and other requirements that must be fulfilled when making a PAIA request to Modern Magnets .
